National Campaign on Model Occupational Health and Safety Laws.

At a recent ACTU Executive meeting, it was resolved to escalate the national campaign on model Occupational Health and Safety laws.

To do this effectively, we need as many case studies as possible from each jurisdiction to help illustrate the traumatic impact for victims of work-related death, injury and disease. Members who have sustained a serious injury or contracted a disease through their work, or who have lost someone due to a work-related incident, who are willing to share their story would be ideal.

Please circulate this request amongst members at your workplace, details or enquiries can be directed to Rod Smith at the AEU-NT, phone 8948 5399 email: president@aeunt.org.au
