MAY 26 - 28 ROLLING STOPPAGES A SUCCESS

Congratulations to all those members who participated in Monday to Wednesday's rolling stoppages and pamphlet drops. 10,000 pamphlets were distributed throughout Darwin, Palmerston, Tennant Creek and Nhulunbuy, and there was some excellent media coverage, especially on Monday.

This week's industrial action will culminate in today's rally and march to Parliament House starting 4pm at Unions House, 38 Woods Street, Darwin. We expect a good turnout.

The AEU-NT will be meeting with the Commissioner for Public Employment and his representatives on Friday afternoon, 30 May, to further negotiate the union's claims.

The AEU-NT Executive plans to meet on Monday afternoon, 2 June, to review the outcomes of Friday's meeting and consider future industrial action.
