Bans on Work Outside Prescribed Hours of Duty Commence on Monday, 31st March

AEU-NT Bans on work outside the prescribed hours of duty will now start from Monday, 31st March.

The prescribed hours of duty per day are 7 hours and 21 minutes.

Sub-branch representatives are urged to clarify with their school management when staff at their school are expected to start work. The hours of duty start from the time a principal instructs their staff to be at work. For example, if a principal says they expect staff to be at school at 7:45am, then the hours of prescribed duty at that school are from 7:45am to 3:06pm.

The 7 hours and 21 minutes includes scheduled breaks during the day (i.e. recess and lunch breaks).

Work outside of 7 hours 21 minutes per day is voluntary. Teachers cannot accrue overtime hours over a weekly period.

For clarification on bans or any other industrial action contact the AEU-NT on 8948 5399 or email your enquiry to secretary@aeunt.org.au
